Dear Mr. Jordan:

I am writing to respectfully request that you launch investigation of alleged improprieties committed by Human Rights for Vietnam Political Action Committee (HRVN PAC), which may result in its violating federal laws, including those under the oversight of the Federal Election Commission (FEC), the Patriot Act and the Racketeering Influenced and Corrupt Organizations (RICO) Act.¹

First, let me introduce myself. My name is Tu Nguyen. My father Dam Phong Nguyen, a prominent Vietnamese journalist of a newspaper called "Tu Do" (Freedom), was murdered because he had exposed the scams and atrocities committed by a foreign political party operating under the name Viet Tan (see Appendix 3). Its military arm, known as "The Front", is suspected of the murders of four other Vietnamese American journalists. Last November, Frontline and ProPublica aired their investigative documentary of The Front's acts of terrorism on American soil. In 1994, Committee to Project Journalists (CPJ) published a detailed report titled "'Silenced - The Unsolved Murders of immigrant journalists'" with similar conclusions: The Front was the prime suspect behind those murders. Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ) recently held a press conference at the National Press Club in Washington DC to call on the U.S. Department of Justice to

REOPENING OF CASES OF VIETNAMESE AMERICAN JOURNALISTS

Time for justice in the killing of Vietnamese-American journalists

New York, May 27, 2016—The Committee to Protect Journalists will call for the cases of five Vietnamese-American journalists who were killed between 1981 and 1990 to be reopened, based on information uncovered by ProPublica and Frontline. The suspected assassinations were the subject of CPJ's 1994 report, "Silenced, The Unsolved Murders of Immigrant Journalists in the United States."

CPJ will hold a press conference at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C., on June 1, to call for a new investigation. CPJ Executive Director Joel Simon, CPJ Program Director and Americas Senior Program Coordinator Carlos Lauría, and Tu Nguyen, the son of Nguyen Dam Phong, a publisher and reporter murdered in 1982, will speak at the event. A.C. Thompson, who examined the killings in "Terror in Little Saigon," a ProPublica/Frontline documentary and Web series, will speak about his reporting. CPJ sent a letter to the Department of Justice calling for action to end impunity in the cases.

WHAT: Press conference on the unsolved murders of five Vietnamese-American journalists.

WHEN: June 1, 2016, noon to 1 P.M.

WHERE: Zenger Room

See CPJ's press advisory at: <https://cpj.org/2016/05/time-for-justice-in-the-killing-of-american-vietna.php>; and the press conference: <https://youtu.be/SHOD3JHNx-c>

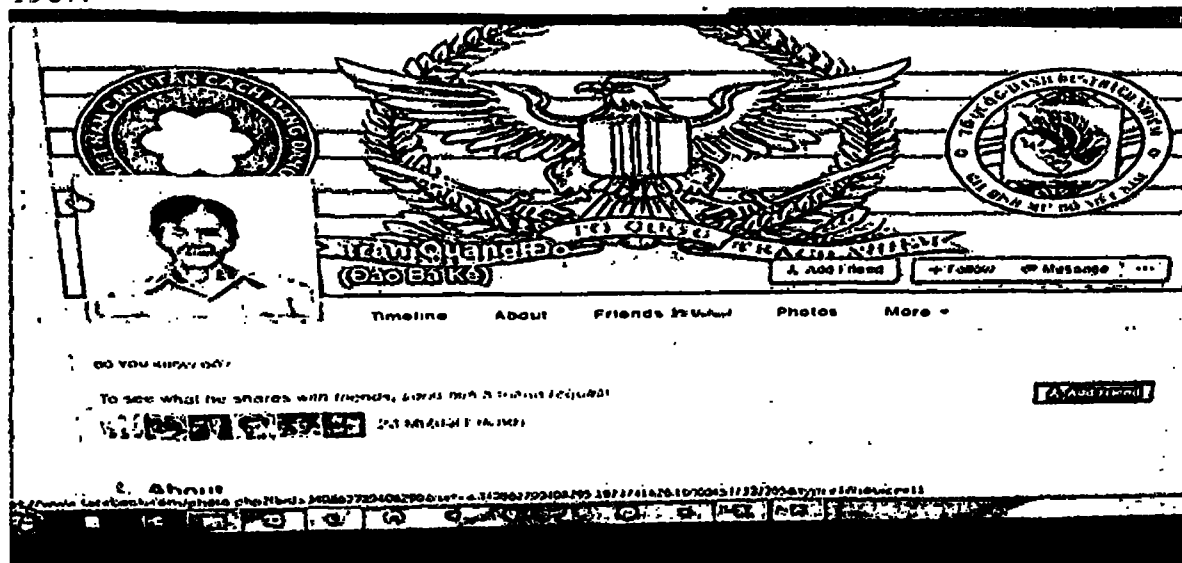

HRVN PAC has used its PAC status to collect contributions from Vietnamese Americans across the country to fund Viet Tan members operating in Vietnam and in Thailand, which may violate both FEC regulations and the Patriot Act. HRVN PAC contributes and raises funds for U.S. elected officials so as to buy influence for Viet Tan. Finally, there are allegations that HRVN PAC may not have fully reported its revenues. As a member of a mafia-like network that is under the centralized control of Viet Tan, HRVN PAC may have violated the RICO Act.

HRVN PAC's contributions to Viet Tan members operating outside the U.S.

According to FEC record, HRVN PAC has transferred a total of $34,000 to Vietnam. Among the recipients, based on FEC record, there are approximately 120 recognized Viet Tan members and sympathizers: Dao Ba Ke, Gioan Thai Van Dung, Nguyen Chi Duc, Chu Manh Son, Paul Tran Minh Nhat, Fanxico Dang Xuan Dieu, Phero Ho Duc Hoa, Dau Van Duong, Ho Van Oanh, Paulus Le Van Son, Phero Nguyen Dinh Cuong, Gioan B Nguyen Van Duyet, Gioan Nguyen Van Oai, and Xuan Nghia Nguyen among others.

For instance, FEC record shows that on September 23, 2013, HRVN PAC transferred $250 to Viet Tan member Dao Ba Ke, whose "nom de guerre" is Tran Quang Do. Dao Ba Ke is a Viet Tan member as evidenced by his Facebook picture below (note: Viet Tan's flag is behind him). There are many credible allegations that Dao Ba Ke was responsible for the execution of four/five dissenting members of The Front in the jungles of Thailand between 1983 and 1987.

The picture to the right shows Dao Ba Ke's commanding and swearing in the resistance fighters before The Front's third failed incursion into Vietnam in 1988. On August 22, 1989, Dao Ba Ke commandeered a group of sixty (68) resistance fighters to infiltrate Vietnam. Thirty fighters were killed; Ke was one of the thirty eight (38) captured and later sent to prison for attempting to overthrow the government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam.

Clearly HRVN PAC has violated U.S. laws by sending PAC contributions, which are tax-exempt, to support the activities of a foreign political party, especially one facing allegations of murders, execution, and terrorist activities both on American soil and in foreign lands.

Contributions to Representative Loretta Sanchez

According to FEC record, HRVN PAC made a $2,000 contribution to U.S. Representative Loretta Sanchez on October 17, 2012. Saigon Broadcasting Television Network (SBTN), which is closely associated with Viet Tan and which spawned HRVN PAC (see later sections), has offered her "soft" contributions in the form of free airtime for her election campaigns, organized phone banks to support her campaign drives, and hosted fundraising events for her over the years.

Over the past twelve months SBTN has hosted at least two fundraising concerts to support Loretta Sanchez's campaign for California Senate Race, one in July of last year in Orange County, California and the other on February 27 of this year in San Jose, California.

Close ties between Representative Sanchez and Viet Tan

The decision of HRVN PAC, which operates as an extension of SBTN, to contribute to Representative Sanchez is not surprising. Representative Sanchez has received contributions from members of Viet Tan over the years.

For years Viet Tan has sought to infiltrate the U.S. political system and manipulate the U.S. electoral process so as to protect its interests, expand its operations and silence its critics.

Below are screen captures showing the contributions made by four Viet Tan party leaders: Diem Hoang Do (listed as Do, Diem; and Do, Diem H), Dan Hoang (listed as Duy Hoang Dan; Hoang Dan, D; and Hoang Dan, Duy), Dung Trung Tran (listed as Tran, Dung and Tran, Dung T), and Dr. Viet Trong Nguyen (listed as Nguyen, Viet; and Nguyen, Viet T residing in Yorba Linda, California). Mr. Diem Hoang Do is the Viet Tan Party Chairman, Mr. Dan Hoang its Spokesperson, Dung Trung Tran its Regional Chair for Southern California, and Dr. Viet Trong Nguyen a member of its Central Committee – he left Viet Tan a few years ago. A thorough investigation should reveal the contributions of lesser known Viet Tan members to Loretta Sanchez's election campaigns. For a list of Viet Tan's current leadership list, see: <http://viettan.org/Leadership.html>.

In exchange for such contributions Representative Sanchez hired a Viet Tan member, Lilly Nguyen, as district staff in Orange County. Ms. Nguyen used her position with Representative Sanchez to silence Viet Tan's critics. In early 2010, she passed to Viet Tan the call for help intended for Representative Sanchez from a dissenting member of Viet Tan who was at the time in hiding in Thailand; consequently, Viet Tan sent its henchmen to threaten this dissident, Huynh Ba Hai. At his request, I have reported the incident to Representative Sanchez, and she completely ignored it. See Huynh Ba Hai's letter to Representative Sanchez in Appendix 2, which has remained unanswered.

More aggravating, Lilly Nguyen went on Radio Free Asia (RFA) on August 8, 2011 to denounce another dissenting member of Viet Tan, Thai Van Dung, to be an undercover agent sent by the Vietnamese government to spy on a Viet Tan-sponsored event in Manila, the Philippines. Her denunciation, while a district staff of Representative Sanchez, led to the arrest and imprisonment of Thai Van Dung and 13 of his fellow activists. See:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/2013_conviction_of_14_Vietnamese_dissidents.

In the interview, Ms. Nguyen disclosed Thai Van Dung's name, date of birth, hometown, and attendance at the Viet Tan-sponsored event in Manila

Hát Cho Nhân Quyền Việt Nam Gây Quỹ Được 50 Ngàn Mỹ Kim

Ngày 12/5/2013, 17:00:00

California (Tổng hợp)- Chiều ngày Chủ Nhật 12/5/2013, cũng là ngày Mothers Day, một chương trình mang tên Hát Cho Nhân Quyền Việt Nam được trực tiếp thu hình và phát sóng (live show) trên băng tần SBTN từ 1 giờ đến 5 giờ 30 cho nhiều đồng hương ở các tiểu bang Hoa Kỳ và một số quốc gia xem.

Most revenues of VNHR PAC were raised through fundraising events organized by SBTN. To the left, a screen captures of some of such events.

SBTN on the other hand works hand-in-hand with Viet Tan. Two long-time Viet Tan members officially work at SBTN in Orange County: Ms. Trinity Hong Thuan Pham and Mr. Steven Bao Huu Mai while two Viet Tan members staff SBTN's DC office: Thanh Lan and Minh Thuy. Reportedly a number of Viet Tan members own shares in SBTN.

Hát Cho Biển Đông & Quyền Con Người

Triệu Con Tim, Một Tiếng Hót Hẹn nhau ở Washington DC ngày 6/7
để lên tiếng cho Biển Đông và Quyền Con Người

Từ đầu tháng 5, Trung Cộng đã bắt chấp hầu hết quốc tế ngưng nhận tài

Việt Nam & Biển Đông

SBTN and Viet Tan have co-organized many public events as shown in the promotional

It is therefore not surprising that SBTN supports
Representative
Sanchez's election campaigns,
directly and through its affiliated HRVN
PAC. It is neither
surprising that HRVN PAC has transferred money

to support Viet Tan members and sympathizers operating in Vietnam and Thailand.

Evidence supporting allegations that Viet Tan had conducted armed activities under the name of "The Front" are provided in Appendices 3-5.

Allegations of unreported revenues

I have received reports from Vietnamese American community members that HRVN PAC collected large amounts of cash at fundraising events. Attached are reports of donors who contributed cash to such events. (See Tu Nguyen's affidavit in Appendix 6.)

There are also allegations that the money reported to FEC as having been transferred to Vietnam may not have been actually transferred. Earlier this year, SBTN leaders instructed employees to retroactively fabricate receipts of money transfers to Vietnam back in 2013. According to my understanding, very few listed recipients, if any at all, have confirmed receipt of "gifts" that HRVN PAC claimed to have sent to them.

I therefore request that the FEC immediately investigate the following allegations against HRVN PAC:

- HRVN PAC has used PAC money to finance a foreign political party, Viet Tan, which has a long history of violent activities, including the execution of dissenting members in Southeast Asia and murders of journalists in the United States.
- The actual amount of money sent overseas may not be correctly reported and duly documented as required by the FEC.
- The money sent overseas may not be duly reported to the Department of the Treasury as required by the Patriot Act.
- Cash contributions to HRVN PAC may not have been fully reported to FEC.
- HRVN PAC and SBTN contributions to Representative Sanchez's campaigns may be part a plan by Viet Tan, a foreign political party, to influence U.S. policies and electoral system.
- HRVN PAC along with SBTN may be part of a racketeering scheme led by Viet Tan to buy political influence, silence critics and collect contributions from trusting U.S. citizens.
- All of the above would constitute gross violations of federal laws, including laws that govern contributions to PACs under FEC's oversight, the Patriot Act and the RICO Act.

The perception that Viet Tan has political clout and media support and therefore enjoys immunity would certainly discourage potential witnesses to come forth and collaborate with the investigation against Viet Tan for the alleged murders of Vietnamese American journalists, including my own father. I therefore greatly appreciate your urgent assistance in this important matter, and look forward to your response. I can be reached via email at _____ or via phone at: _____

Sincerely,

TU NGUYEN

"My name is Huynh Ba Hai, I was born in 1972 who now lives in the city of Lillehammer, Norway. I am a freelance journalist writing for Dan Lam Bao news blog. Today, I am writing to you to expound an incidence that has happened to me in 2010 concerning one of your assistant, Lilly Nguyen and yourself.

In January of 2010, I was a reporter seeking asylum in Bangkok, Thailand. On the website, take2tango, Lilly Nguyen presented that I could contact you through her at the phone she provided I then called her from Bangkok. She then instructed me over the phone to email her at the address:

In my email to Lilly Nguyen, I asked her to deliver a confidential letter addressed to you asking for your help because of my previous works as a reporter in Vietnam contributed much to the US Embassy. I believed that as a US Elected Officials, you had the capability to intervene in my case. This email contained much confidential information of me, other reporters in Vietnam and the US Consulate in Saigon, Vietnam. I do not know if this letter was ever delivered to you or not. However, immediately after the letter was sent to Lilly Nguyen, your assistant as instructed, I received many harassing and threatening emails from Viet Tan's leader, Ly Thai Hung.

Although, I later learned that Lilly Nguyen, in fact, is a member of Viet Tan organization who has forwarded Mr. Ly Thai Hung my confidential email addressed to you. I currently still have this original email that I had asked Lilly Nguyen to deliver to you on May 1, 2010. With all due respect Ma'me, Lilly Nguyen had violated the confidentiality of correspondence, as well as abuse of power as your staff, she used her access to reveal confidential documents. If at that time, an assassination was ordered to have me killed by Viet Tan organization, Lilly Nguyen would be the person responsible.

I am willing to come to the US to denounce the crime conducted by Lilly Nguyen. Wish you well and best wishes. Respectfully, Huynh Ba Hai Lillehammer 06/01/2016."

Viet Tan as a foreign political party

170444-11161
Founded by Hoang Co Minh in 1982 in the jungles of Thailand, the Vietnam Revolutionary Reform Party, or "Viet Tan" in Vietnamese, directed armed activities against the Socialist Republic of Vietnam. He served as the founding Chair of Viet Tan.

Viet Tan's military arm, the National United Front for the Liberation of Vietnam (NUFLV aka "The Front"), built secret military bases in Thailand and a guerilla army to infiltrate Vietnam so as to topple the Hanoi government and liberate Vietnam from communist rule.

Background Briefing: Viet Tan

By Carlyle A. Thayer

Both the Vietnamese official media and Viet Tan are in agreement about the basic history of Viet Tan. Hoang Co Minh, a former Republic of Vietnam Navy Admiral, founded the National United Front for the Liberation of Vietnam (NUFLV) on April 30, 1980. He later founded the Vietnam Reform Party or Viet Tan (Viet Nam Canh Tan Cach Mang Dang) on September 10, 1982. The NUFLV and the Viet Tan aimed to overthrow the Vietnamese communist government.

Both Vietnamese authorities and members of the NUFLV agree that the NUFLV carried out acts of armed violence (or armed subversion) in Vietnam by infiltrating its members through Laos and Cambodia:

A member of the Vietnam Reform Party has also indicated that during the period of clandestine activity (1982-94), members of Viet Tan living in Vietnam carried arms. Vietnam charges that Viet

According to Viet Tan's own website, "[t]he mission of Viet Tan is to implement a comprehensive revolution to establish democracy and to reform Vietnam. This means that in our struggle we will give priority to abolishing the dictatorial regime blocking the advancement of our people, while at the same time, bringing about reform through a process of selective transformation that fulfills the needs of the people." (See: <http://viettan.org>). By virtue of its mission and by the fact that it was founded and has operated mainly outside the U.S., Viet Tan is in essence a foreign political party.

Vietnam's (NUFLV) founders aka the Front, the Front was the military wing and Viet Tan was/is the brain trust of the operation or 2 in 1 and 1 is 2. It was what the Viet Cong (VC) was to the North Vietnamese Communist during the Vietnam War.

Việt Tân is a network of members that always claims their aims are to establish democracy and reform Vietnam through peaceful and political means. But by this video, you see the opposite, the true nature of a terrorist group. The armed resistance fighters were forced to take an oath of allegiance to Việt Tân. Việt Tân's flag can be seen vividly during a rally and an incited violence speech given by Hoàng Cơ Minh, supreme leader and chairman of Việt Tân and the Front (Mặt Trận), contradicting Viet Tan's contention of peaceful and political means policy.

Viet Tan as a terrorist organization: Operating clandestinely, Viet Tan was the mastermind behind The Front's operations. Few people outside Viet Tan knew of its existence. Viet Tan established a special unit, code-named K-9, to silence critics of The Front. This unit is believed to be behind many assassination attempts, both successful and failed, targeting journalists who exposed The Front's and evidence that points to K-9 as the culprit.

atrocities and deceptions. My father, journalist Dam Phong, and four other Vietnamese American journalists are believed to be victims of K-9. A 1994 report by the Committee to Project Journalists (CPJ) documented the murders of these journalists

Nguyen Xuan Nghia served as a key strategist and communications chief for the Front during the 1980s, and spent roughly a decade in the group's top echelon. Trained as an economist, and a longtime student of Asian history, Nghia today lives in Orange County, California. He is, of all things, a prolific columnist, appearing regularly as a commentator in other Vietnamese media.

Nguyen Xuan Nghia, former high ranking Viet Tan official

In a series of interviews with ProPublica and Frontline, Nghia offered shifting takes on the Front. At first, he insisted that the organization wasn't connected in any way to attacks on journalists or others in the U.S.

In later conversations, when confronted with evidence of the Front's violence, he adopted a different line. In a videotaped interview, Nghia said it was "quite possible" that Front members were behind the assassination of Dam Phong and could have committed other crimes. There was, he acknowledged, a violent faction within the organization, and when the videographers turned off the cameras, Nghia admitted he had participated in a Front meeting during which members discussed a plan to assassinate a well-known newspaper editor in Orange County. Nghia said he dissuaded his colleagues from killing the man.

"It was a dark chapter in my life," he said.

<https://www.propublica.org/article/terror-in-little-saigon-vietnam-american-journalists-murdered>

Last November the documentary "Terror in Little Saigon," broadcasted on PBS's Frontline program, gave a detailed account of K-9's activities and The Front's military operations. According to the documentary, The Front launched "three failed invasions from the borders of Thailand and Laos."

Investigation by the FBI and researches by CPJ (See attached CPJ letter to the justice department, please note: because of the ongoing investigation and the involvement of the Justice Dept., CPJ letter is NOT for public dissemination) as well as ProPublica all pointed to The Front, the armed element of Viet Tan, as the murderer of my father, a Vietnamese American journalist, some 34 years ago. He was murdered because he had exposed the scams and atrocities committed by The Front. The Front is suspected of the murders of four other Vietnamese American journalists. The Front is believed to have executed dissenting members in the jungles of Southeast Asia.

PROPUBLICA Introduction Part I Part II Part III

After a long truck ride over a series of slippery mud roads through the Thai countryside, ProPublica and Frontline found one of Minh's old Laotian allies living in a rural farming hamlet. The man said Minh was brutal about punishing those who lost heart for the mission. The Laotian fighter, as well as five men who had joined the Front and traveled to the camp in Thailand, said that Minh had executed as many as 10 of his own soldiers for insubordination or lack of devotion. It is possible one or more of them were U.S. citizens.

The FBI had received at least one report of killings in the camp. A Front member escaped in 1986 and contacted the bureau in Honolulu, telling agents that two recruits had been murdered at the camp. It is not clear what the FBI did with the information.

Former Front members said Hoang Co Minh put soldiers at the base in Thailand.

<https://www.propublica.org/article/terror-in-little-saigon-vietnam-american-journalists-murdered>

From his two-year research, A. C. Thompson of ProPublica, the documentary's producer, found that Hoang Co Minh established chapters across the U.S. and other countries to raise money for The Front's activities.

Investigation by the FBI and researches by CPJ as well as ProPublica all pointed to The Front, the armed element of Viet Tan, as the murderer of my father, a Vietnamese American journalist, and some 34 years ago. He was murdered because he had exposed the scams and atrocities committed by The

So Viet Tan is a foreign political party suspected of having committed acts of terrorism against those who spoke out against it, both overseas and on American soil. It had operated clandestinely for 22 years. Only on November 21st, 2004 did Viet Tan introduce itself to the public as it announced the dissolution of The Front. This was its attempt to efface its terrorist and criminal past and present itself as a peaceful human rights organization.

"My name is TU Nguyen. I am over 21 years of age, of sound mind, with personal knowledge of the following facts, and fully competent to testify.

During my investigation of Human Rights for Vietnam PAC (HRVN PAC), on or about March 16, 2016, I issued a public announcement asking people who donated to HRVN PAC in cash to contact me. HRVN PAC has partnered with SBTN and Viet Tan in many fundraising drives since its inception. Viet Tan has criminal past and was/is known to use ALL means to silence its opponents or who dare to question. My father, Dam Phong, was one of its victims. Thus, in order to prevent reprisals from Viet Tan, I have assured the callers that their conversation with me will be confidential. I have compiled a spread sheet of the people who made cash donations and were not asked to fill out forms (>$200) contrary to FEC's policy. There were approximately 180+ people making the cash donations in the amount of $21,645. (See attached exhibit B)."

Likewise, according to this local newspaper, HRVN PAC expects to surpass the $51,000 raised as of 5/12/2013. However, FEC record does not reflect or not reported the $51,000+.

Let's assume that we stop at $51,000 and give or take all the numbers between 5/12/2013 & 5/15/2013, but tally is only $7,450.00. The difference is $43,550.
